

want to know what we get up to here?

www.dontjustsitthere.co.uk

the national and local online events directory

find events

Search for events at this venue or elsewhere by postcode, category and date, or refine your search to include child-friendliness, parking facilities, non-smoking venues etc. and it's completely free!!

post events

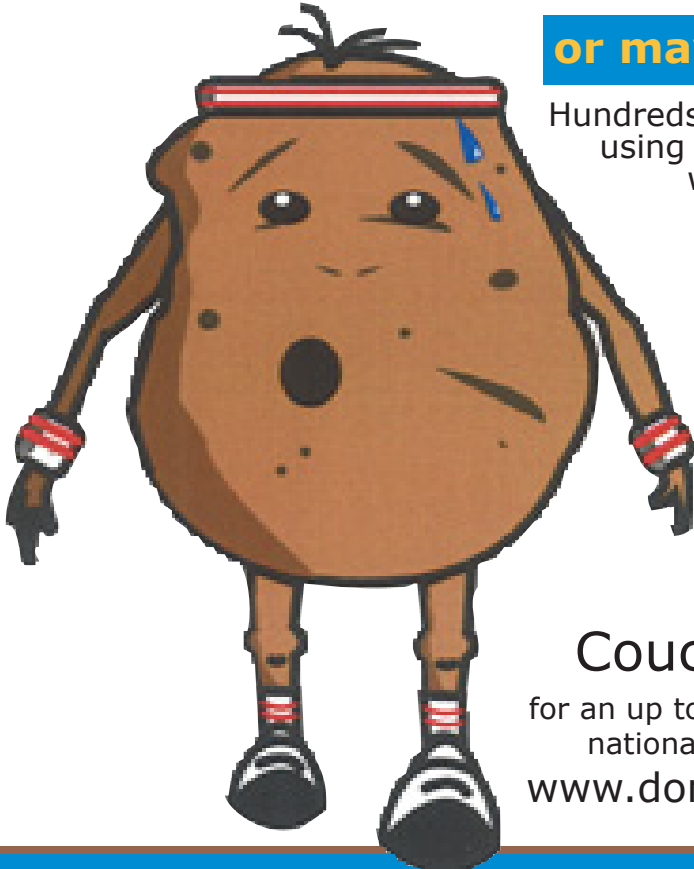

Post your own events so that everyone can see them! As many events as you like, as often as you like and wherever you like and it's also completely free!!

or maybe advertise?

Hundreds of people are already using the site everyday, and word is spreading fast.

Why not advertise where you can target the exact areas you want to reach?

Because although we're a national site, you can choose to advertise and pay for only the post codes you want!!

Couchy Says . . .
